

Olympic Peninsula Adventure Camp: Into the Wild

(Entering grades 5-7)

Ready for real adventure? Prepare to discover the outdoors in a whole new way with our new revamped program, Into the Wild. Don't miss out on this awesome week-long camping experience! Campers will search the shores and seas of Puget Sound searching for whales and hike at the base of the Olympic Rainforest.

This week-long voyage is also a great bonding experience for campers who participate in this awe-inspiring expedition. With exciting days in the sun and warm camp fires at night, everyone is sure to make new friends and create life-long memories.

Be sure to sign-up for this awesome trip to explore the breathtaking wilderness and stunning waters that reside in our own backyard, here in Washington State. This week-long camping trip is an eye-opening experience meant to captivate the adventurous heart in all of us.

